Mr. Kent:

On behalf of the Men and Women of the Los Angeles Port Police Association we would like to offer you our support in your organization's efforts in bringing the USS Iowa to the Port of Los Angeles.

The Los Angeles Port Police has the primary responsibility of providing safety and police protection to one of the nation's largest water ports.

It will be both an honor and privilege for us to welcome this historical ship to our port and provide for its security as she berths her keel in her final resting place.

May we never forget the great sacrifice of those sailors who lost their lives in the grace of this ship. Their kindred spirits forever standing watch.

Sincerely,

Livanios J. Pilitsis
